

The Doll and the Rose

I was walking around in a store. I saw the cashier hand this little boy his money back saying “I’m sorry, but you don’t have enough money to buy this doll.”

Then the little boy turned to the old woman next to him:” Granny, are you sure I don’t have enough money?”

The old woman replied: “You know that you don’t have enough money to buy this doll, my dear.”

Then she asked him to stay there for 5 minutes while she went to look around. She left quickly.

The little boy was still holding the doll in his hand.

Finally, I walked toward him and I asked him who he wished to give this doll to.

“It’s the doll that my sister loved most and wanted so much for this Christmas. She was so sure that Santa Claus would bring it to her.”

I replied to him that maybe Santa Claus will bring it to her after all, and not to worry.

But he replied to me sadly, “No, Santa Claus can’t bring it to her where she is now. I have to give the doll to my mommy so she can give it to my sister when she goes there.”

His eyes were so sad while saying this. “My sister has gone to be with God. Daddy says that Mommy is going to see god very soon too, so I thought that she could take the doll with her to give it to my sister.”

My heart nearly stopped.

The little boy looked up at me and said: “I told Daddy to tell Mommy not to go yet. I need her to wait until I come back from the mall.”

Then he showed me a very nice photo of him when he was laughing. Then he told me “I want Mommy to take my picture with her so she won’t forget me.”

“I love my Mommy and I wish she didn’t have to leave me, but Daddy says that she has to go to be with my little sister.”

“Let us never be a closed corporation; let us never deny our experience, for whatever it may be worth, to the world around us. Let our individual members heed the call to every field of human endeavor. Let them carry the experience and spirit of A.A. into all these affairs, for whatever good they may accomplish. For not only has God saved us from alcoholism; the world has recieved us back into its citizenship.”

Then he looked again at the doll with sad eyes, very quietly I reached for my wallet and said to the boy, “What if we checked again, just in case you do have enough money?”

“Ok” he said “I hope that I have enough.” I added some of my money to his without him seeing and we started to count it. There was enough for the doll and even some spare money.

The little boy said: “Thank you God for giving me enough money.”

Then he looked at me and added “I asked yesterday before I slept for God to make sure I had enough money to buy this doll so that Mommy can give it to my sister. He heard me!”

“I also wanted to have enough money to buy a white rose for my Mommy, but I didn’t dare to ask God for too much. But he gave me enough to buy the doll and a white rose.

“My Mommy loves white roses.”

A few minutes later, the old lady came back again and I left with my basket.

I finished my shopping in a totally different state from when I started. I couldn’t get the little boy out of my mind,

Then I remembered a local newspaper article 2 days ago, which mentioned a drunk man in a truck who hit a car, where there was a young lady and a little girl.

The little girl died right away, and the mother was in a critical state. The family had to decide whether to pull the plug on the life-assisting machine, because the young lady would not be able to recover from the coma.

Was this the family of the little boy?

Two days after the encounter with the little boy, I read in the newspaper that the young lady had passed away.

I couldn’t stop myself as I bought a bunch of white roses and went to the funeral home where the body of the young woman was exposed for people to see and make last wishes before burial.

She was there, in her coffin holding a beautiful white rose in her hand with the photo of the little boy and the doll placed over her chest.

I left the place, teary-eyed, feeling that my life had been changed forever. The love that this little boy had for his mother and his sister is still, to this day, hard to imagine. And in a fraction of a second, a drunk driver had taken this away from him.

Now you have 2 choices:

- 1: Pass this story on.
- 2: Ignore it as if it hasn’t touched your heart.

A quote for this month is by Jay Leno:

“With hurricanes, tornados, fires out of control, mud-slides, flooding, severe thunderstorms tearing up the country from one end to another, and with the threat of bird flu and terrorist attacks, “Are we sure this is a good time to take God out of the Pledge of Allegiance?”

Wider Understanding

To reach more alcoholics, understanding of A.A. and the public good will towards A.A. must go on growing everywhere. We need to be on still better terms with medicine, religion, employers, governments, courts, prisons, mental hospitals, and all enterprises in the alcoholism field. We need the increasing good will of editors, writers, television and radio channels. These publicity outlets need to be opened ever wider.

^^

Nothing matters to A.A.’s future welfare more than the manner in which we use the collossus of modern communication. Used unselfishly and well, it can produce results surpassing our present imagination.

Should we handle this great instrument badly, we shall be shattered by the ego manifestations of our own people. Against this peril, A.A. members’ anonymity before the general public is our shield and our buckler.
