

A Rosebud

A new minister was walking with an older, more seasoned minister in the garden one day. Feeling a bit insecure about what God had for him to do, he was asking the older preacher for some advice.

The older preacher walked up to a rosebush and handed the young preacher a rosebud and told him to open it without tearing off any petals.

The young preacher looked in disbelief at the older preacher and was trying to figure out what a rosebud could possibly have to do with his wanting to know the will of God for his life and ministry. But because of his great respect for the older preacher, he proceeded to try to unfold the rose, while keeping every petal intact.

It wasn't long before he realized how impossible this was to be.

Noting the younger preachers inability to unfold the rosebud without tearing it, the older preacher began to recite the following poem...

It is only a tiny rosebud,
A flower of God's design:
But I cannot unfold the petals
With these clumsy hands of mine.
The secret of unfolding flowers
is not known to such as I.
God opens this flower so easily,
But in my hands they die.
If I cannot unfold a rosebud, this flower of God's design,
then how can I have the wisdom
to unfold this life of mine.

The Secret

One day, one friend asked another, "How is it that you are always so happy? You have so much energy, and you never seem to get down."

With her eyes smiling, she said, "I know the Secret!" "What secret is that?" To which she replied, "I'll tell you all about it, but you have to promise to share the Secret with others."

"The Secret is this: I have learned there is little I can do in my life that will make me truly happy. I must depend on God to make me happy and to meet my needs. When a need arises in my life, I have to trust God to supply according to HIS riches. I have learned most of the time I don't need half of what I think I do. He has never let me down.

Since I learned that 'Secret', I am happy." The questioner's first thought was, "That's too simple!" But upon reflecting over her own life she recalled how she thought a bigger house would make her happy, but it didn't! She thought a better paying job would make her happy, but it hadn't. When did she realize her greatest happiness? Sitting on the floor with her grandchildren, playing games, eating pizza or reading a story, a simple gift from God.

Now you know it too! We can't depend on people to make us happy. Only GOD in His infinite wisdom can do that. Trust HIM! And now I pass the Secret on to you! So once you get it, what will you do?

YOU have to tell someone the Secret, too! That GOD in His wisdom will take care of YOU! But it's not really a secret... We just have to believe it and do it...

Really trust God!

AMEN!!

Just Pass It On!

Swedish physician Magnus Huss, coined the word alcoholism in his writings titled Alcoholismus Chronicus (Chronic Alcoholism) and Chronische Alkohols Krankheit (Chronic Alcohol-Sickness) It took nearly a century for Dr Huss' new term, and the accompanying term alcoholic to achieve widespread usage in America (GB 167-168, SD xiv)

[A Rosebud, continued]

So I'll trust in God for leading
Each moment of my day.
I will look to God for guidance
in each step of the way.
The path that lies before me,
Only my God knows.
I'll trust in God to unfold the moments,
Just as he unfolds the rose.

THE MEETING THAT WASN'T THERE

When I got sober, the guy who 12th-Stepped me asked if I wanted to go to a meeting that night. I said, "sure," so he gave me a Directory. Since I didn't know how to read all the codes in the Directory, I accidentally went to a special interest group, but it was fine. They welcomed me, gave me a Newcomer chip, and even though I didn't identify with their special interest, I did identify as an alcoholic. It was a good experience. I started going to two or three meetings a day.

When I got six months, I went back to that meeting to thank them for welcoming me into A.A. They appreciated the gesture, and I appreciated them. It was great.

After another six months, I decided to visit this group again, so we could celebrate my first year of sobriety. When I got to the church where the meeting was held, nobody was around. The pastor happened to be changing light bulbs in the patio, so I asked him where the group was. He didn't know, they had disappeared two or three months before.

I decided to wait on the sidewalk outside the church, in case someone else showed up. We could go for coffee.

As I waited, just hanging around, something strange happened to me. Suddenly, everything I saw looked different. It all appeared hard, rock solid, and somehow set against me. When I say "everything," I mean everything: the buildings, trees, fences, streets, cars and the rest. Some people call alcoholism "a disease of perception." I sure had a change of perception then. The whole world exchanged its normal appearance for something impenetrable and ominous. Then after a period of time – I don't know how long – the world came back to its normal appearance. Things didn't look hard and set against me any more.

Yeah, I know it's weird. But a short time later I realized what this strange experience was all about. Here's the deal: there had been no meeting at that time and place. OK. One meeting had gone. However, my change of perception showed me what the world would be like if there were no meetings at all. It would be hard, impenetrable, and set against me. I got a glimpse of the world without A.A.

I hadn't really taken A.A. for granted before that evening, but I sure don't take it for granted now. A.A. hasn't been around very long. If I had been born fifty years earlier than I was, I might not have encountered the Program. Also, there are places in the world where there is still no A.A. even today. For example, John Barleycorn is very much alive and well in the mountains of northern Luzon in the Phillipines.

I'm grateful for that evening's strange change of perception. It was weird, but it was a gift. I remember it vividly, and I don't ever take A.A. for granted.
