

LIFELINE

The 8th Step

My sobriety date is December 4, 1986 and I was introduced to AA through the rooms of Al-anon; for the very first time in my life people listened to me and wanted to know my story. I was HOME for sure; then when I went to my first AA meeting and saw the steps on the wall I was in shock! They certainly did not apply to ME! not ME! the perfect one; I soon learned that those 12 steps would be a map through my life, those 12 steps were the key that unlocked the prison I had been living in for many years. I really thought that

"doing" the steps was the easiest thing to do...well... until I started getting serious about the steps.

The 12 steps of AA are very much like a "rotorooter" service guy (sponsor) who continually says "Hey there is more 'crap' over here." My first 4th step was a "piece of work" because there were so many people who had "used and abused" me and of course they were all at fault. When my sponsor said, "what was YOUR part in all of this?" I was so stubborn about looking at my part; until she pointed out

Tradition Eight

Tradition 8: Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.

"Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever non-professional. We define professionalism as the occupation of counseling alcoholics for fees or hire. But we may employ alcoholics where they are going to perform those services for which we might otherwise have to engage non-alcoholics. Such special services may be well recompensed. But our usual A.A. "12th Step" work is never to be paid for." Bill Wilson 1948

Alcoholics Anonymous has been around for decades. All around the world sick and suffering alcoholics have stepped into these rooms and achieved sobriety. Many relapse, some die, many make it back to the rooms. Alcoholics Anonymous is completely non-professional,

The Monster Story

There once was a girl. She didn't know much but that changed. She was confused about what was happening. She thought and thought and just had a gut feeling, and later found out that all of her thoughts and feelings were right, her dad was doing drugs. She just didn't know how bad it was. She was very close with her dad, but finding out the truth made her more distant from him, she didn't want to get even more hurt than she already was. The girl started to notice that her dad was getting worse so she asked her mom what was going on. Her mom told her that her dad was doing heroin instead of pain pills now. The girl knew that was one of the worst drugs. Her mom couldn't handle it anymore and wanted to get a divorce. Her dad found out and went crazy. He started doing meth. He stole everything from the family to get money for drugs because he obviously didn't have a job anymore. The family kicked him out of their house. He had nowhere to go because nobody wants a drug addict living in their house so he had to live in his car. After a while of not seeing him the family decided to meet him for lunch because their grandpa just died. The girl has never seen her dad that bad. At that point he was mixing heroin and meth together. He had all of his stuff locked up in chains because he thought somebody was out to get him. Everybody kept telling him he needed to go get help, he didn't actually want help but he went and got it anyways to make everyone happy except for himself. Right as he got out of rehab he went right back to doing drugs, it wasn't even two days! The girl was hurt, all she wanted was for this to be over, it was hurting her so bad. She thought the best way to make her feel better was to be mean to her dad whenever he talked to her or not even talk to him at all, but she didn't know that it was hurting her even more. One day something really bad happened, the girls dad was so high that he threatened somebody, he thought that guy was out to get him when really he wasn't. He got a felony for that. He would never do that when he was clean so after that the girls dad decided himself that he wanted to get better. Nobody forced him too. The girl saw her dad clean and realized she didn't want to be mean to him anymore. She knew she would be happier if she had memories with her dad when he was gone rather than not having any memories with him at all. She also knew that in order for her dad to get better she needed to support him and be there for him. He has been clean for over 7 months now and the girl is more forgiving for his choices and not as angry with him. She still isn't as close with him as she used to be and probably never will be but she is still working on being close with him and she will now have good memories with him, and if he chooses to go back to drugs she's going to be more forgiving and be there for him when he needs it. She now knows that addiction takes over your whole life and what he does while he is high he can't control it.

History of the Hillcrest Group

It was started in 1976 by Marian Barlow and B. Marvis Lindsay, Marian and Marvis were working for South Valley Counseling Services, funded by Salt Lake County, After losing their funding, they founded the Sobriety Corporation, The meeting location was across the street from Hillcrest High School, that's why it's called the Hillcrest Group. After the meeting, we would walk across the parking lot to the Belgian Waffle Restaurant. We also held a few meetings in the back room of the restaurant.

Over the years, the group had to move many times. We have had many landlords. After leaving the offices of the Sobriety Corporation, they went out of business. We moved to a little, white, wood frame building on State Street by the Last Outpost Restaurant. That building is now a trophy store. The group then moved to the back room of the South Seas Restaurant, now closed. We met for about two months in the Copperview Community Center. We had two or three meetings in a beauty salon in Murray. We then moved to the American Legion Hall in Sandy until it burned down. When we were at that location, we were giving a lady in the group $10,00 to bake cakes for those celebrating A.A. birthdays, Instead, she spent the money to go to school. She said she meant to pay it back, but the money was never repaid_ George, the Commander of the American Legion Hall, called to tell me that we were about 11 months past due on the rent. At the next meeting, we told the group what had happened.

We passed a basket around and collected more than enough money to pay the rent.

We then moved to our present location, St, James Episcopal Church, 7486 Union Park Avenue. Marian didn't give chips. She made up paper bags with colored stars on them. She had a formula for the number of stars in particular colors for each length of sobriety.

When we were meeting by the Belgian Waffle Restaurant, we would randomly speak. If there was a pause in the speaking, the Chair person would call on someone to speak. When the Central Office wanted the groups to have historians, a lady named Rachel told us she wanted to be our group historian. We gave her all the group history and never saw her again. Marian kept all the sobriety birth dates on index cards in a recipe box

For many years, the group had summer picnics funded with profits from the book raffle_ A young man named Mike, hosted the first one in his grandmother's backyard. There was a rope tied in a tree and we tried to climb it. The picnics were potluck and most of them were at Riverton Park. We would play horse shoes and volleyball. The last two were at Murray Park. I miss them.

Pamphlet of the Month: “Do You Think You’re Different?” (excerpt)

“A.A. won’t work for me. I’m too far gone.” “It’s nice for those people, but I’m president of the P.T.A.” I’m too old. Too young. Not religious enough. I’m gay. Or Jewish. A professional person. A member of the clergy. Too smart. Or too uneducated. At this moment, people all over the world are thinking that A.A. probably won’t work in their case for one or several of these reasons. Perhaps you are one of these people. We in A.A. believe alcoholism is a disease that is no respecter of age, sex, creed, race, wealth, occupation, or education. It strikes at random. Our experience seems to show that anyone can be an alcoholic. And, beyond question, anyone who wants to stop drinking is welcome in A.A. Our co-founder Bill W., in telling about A.A.’s earliest days, wrote: “In the beginning, it was four whole years before A.A. brought permanent sobriety to even one alcoholic woman. Like the ‘high bottoms,’ the women said they were different; A.A. couldn’t be for them. But as the communication was perfected, mostly by the women themselves, the picture changed. “This process of identification and transmission has gone on and on. The skid-rower said he was different. Even more loudly, the socialite (or Park Avenue stumblebum) said the same. So did the artists and the professional people, the rich, the poor, the religious, the agnostic, the Indians and the Eskimos, the veterans and the prisoners. “But nowadays all of these, and legions more, soberly talk about how very much alike all of us alcoholics are when we admit that the chips are finally down.

In the stories that follow, you may encounter men and women whose race, age, sexual preference, or any number of other conditions are similar to yours. They came to A.A. and found that Alcoholics Anonymous worked just as well for them as it had for hundreds of thousands of others of us who thought we were “different.” We found help, and we found friends with whom we could identify and share our experiences. We are no longer alone.

that I was the common thread in all my affairs; especially after creating a list of my character "barriers" that kept me from the sunlight of the spirit and my own peace of mind.

After many hours of back and forth conversations with my sponsor I made that list! Then she dropped the bomb on me! "Let's create a list of the people that were damaged by your drinking, because we are going to start looking at the process of "making amends." Oh I was hating this very much but KNEW it was the only way. Step eight states "Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all." All this step asks of us is to become willing and make a list! Nothing more, nothing less! But as a newcomer I made a mountain out of a mole hill.

and almost entirely unorganized. This works wonderfully. Spiritual experiences are flowing from alcoholics who are well to those who are sick. One alcoholic talking to another; it's really quite simple.

Is it possible that this program could ever be professionalized? Absolutely not. All the efforts to "professionalize" A.A have failed miserably. A.A. will not tolerate the idea of paid "A.A. Therapists" or "organizers". This life saving program can never be diluted by "professionals".

It is true that few subjects have been the cause of more contention within our Fellowship than professionalism. Caretakers who swept floors, cooks who fried hamburgers, secretaries in offices, authors writing books--all these we have seen hotly assailed because they were, as their critics angrily remarked, "making money out of A.A." Ignoring the fact that these labors were not Twelfth Step jobs at all, the critics attacked as A.A. professionals these workers of ours who were often doing thankless tasks that no

The process wasn't that hard since I only had a few names on that list ... you know the big ones... Mother, Father, ex's, etc. but when my sponsor said "what about putting YOU on the list" it got immediately hard! Oh I could put my name there on the list... but become willing to make amends to ME!!! That wasn't going to be easy. Getting willing was a roller coaster ride; some days I was very willing.. next day not so much and other days ... NOT at all. So I just kept praying for the willingness to be willing! Every day, over and over, I prayed for willingness to be willing... and then one morning out of no where came the surprise visit from....WILLINGNESS! I was there, I could feel it, taste it, and I knew I was ready. I was "movin' on down the road." Next stop ... STEP NINE!

one else could or would do. Even greater furors were provoked when A.A. members began to run rest homes and farms for alcoholics, when some hired out to corporations as personnel men in charge of the alcoholic wards, when others entered the field of alcohol education. In all these instances, and more, it was claimed that A.A. knowledge and experience were being sold for money, hence these people, too, were professionals.

Bill W. once said, "There are people who serve us full time in other capacities such as: cooks, caretakers and paid Intergroup secretaries. These people are not "A.A. professionals". They are just making more and better 12th Step work possible. Secretaries at their desks are valuable points of contact, information and public relations. That is what they are paid for, and nothing else. They help carry the good news of A.A. to the outside world. That's not "A.A. therapy"; it's just a lot of very necessary but often thankless work."
